

INTRODUCTION

Founded in 1945 Medical University - Novosibirsk has trained over 22 000 local and foreign citizens from 43 countries Europe, Asia, America, Africa.

INTRODUCTION

Most of the graduates are authoritative and competent physicians and dentists or eminent healthcare leaders in their home countries today.

They remain connected professionally and emotionally with their

of Medical University-Plovdiv

accredited university basic academic units:

Faculty of Medicine

Faculty of Dental Medicine

Faculty of Pharmacy

Faculty of Public Health

Medical College

Medical University - Plovdiv is a member of the European Association of Medical Schools.

is bearer of the Erasmus University Charter ensuring participation in international educational projects and programs of the European Union to guarantee quality training and student and teacher mobility for integration into the European structures.

Medical University – Plovdiv has been assessed and certified as meeting the requirements of ISO 9001-2008 in educational activities: 2009 – 2012

Medical University – Plovdiv trains students in Medicine, Dental Medicine, Pharmacy and Public health.

It provides postgraduate training of PhD students and specializing medical professionals.

All programmes at the Medical University-Plovdiv are full-time studies according to the Ordinance on Uniform State Requirements for acquiring of higher education.

Harmonization of curricular and study programmes with the appropriate European universities resolves the problems with ECTS introduction, allows mutual recognition of study plans and increases mobility of students. The new study plans are closely connected with introducing e-learning and interactive

All departments considered indispensable for higher medical education in accordance with modern world standards are available – theoretical, pre-clinical and clinical with modern equipment for diagnostics, treatment, research activities and training of medical, dental and other health specialists.

Clinical training takes place at the St. George University Hospital – the largest hospital facility in the country provided with advanced equipment and up to date technologies.

Students are taught in lecture courses, lab classes, tutorials, clinical groups, bed-side work, etc. Students are stimulated for individual practice according to their interests and future professional plans.

158 full time professors

698 assistant professors

All they with profound professional knowledge, high scientific achievements and rich teaching experience. They are respected members of international medical organizations, participate in national, European and world research teams working not only on medical science and practice but also on development of medical education.

Combined with the modern equipment, this is a prerequisite for the perfect mastering of medical knowledge and skills by

PhD programmes for the educational and scientific degree of „Doctor" - three years full-time or individual course, ending with a PhD thesis submitted and defended

PGS in all medical specialities – 3-5 years full-time training ending with a state exam

Continuous education – short term blocks on topics of interest, highly specialized medical techniques and new methods etc.

Research in Medical University - Plovdiv is organized and supervised by the Research Council.

Research activities in different faculties and departments correspond to their specific field of science – biomedical, clinical, health care, etc.

Students are encouraged to join research teams and ongoing

The Research Center of Immunology and the Animal Care Unit provide facilities for experimental and preclinical research.

Surgical and clinical departments are open for students willing to develop scientific and practical skills.

There is a Youth Scientific Association which organizes young scientists, undergraduate and doctoral students. An annual competition named “Youth and Science” is a traditional event at which the best research presentations of young

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS in Medical University
- Plovdiv AIM to develop the academic, research and administrative work through:

- ▶▶ active experience exchange with foreign universities;
- ▶▶ transforming the University into an advanced knowledge institution and desirable destination for education of foreign students, and
- ▶▶ participation in international projects and

The International relations in MU-Plovdiv cover the following frames:

ilateral and multilateral agreements for cooperation with universities nd institutions from abroad. Medical University-Plovdiv has contract reements with more than 70 foreign universities from over 25 uropean countries, Turkey, Croatia and USA.

U-Plovdiv was awarded Erasmus Extended University Charter. articipating in Erasmus programm MU-Plovdiv encourages innovative rocesses, knowledge transfer and technologies in education. The niversity eventuates incoming and outgoing student mobility for udies and practice as well as staff mobility for training and teaching oth in Medical University-Plovdiv and foreign universities.

his exchange programme forming a major part of the EU Lifelong

Participation in international organizations, work groups and commissions, including individual and collective membership. VU-Plovdiv is associated member of Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie (AUF).

Participation in international projects and programmes (The Seventh Framework Programme, Leonardo da Vinci subprogram, European Structural Fund “Development of Human Resources”).

Participation in congresses, conferences and seminar abroad.

Specializations of students and academic staff abroad.

Publications in international guides, bulletins and computer networks related to activity and teaching programmes in